Focus on Kids

Invest in the Future, Invest in Our Youth

Summer can be a fun time for families and children. However, for some in our community it brings challenges. Some families cannot afford camps or childcare assistance, other families whose children receive "Free or Reduced Lunch" at school struggle to provide lunches during the summer.

Consider that in Sandy Springs, 63 percent of children in public elementary schools receive lunch assistance, which means they are living near the poverty level. Some schools in Dunwoody have near 40 percent of students on the lunch program.

CAC is working to make a difference in the lives of these children this summer with programs to provide camp opportunities, summer lunches and costly school supplies. We hope you will join our efforts to Focus on Kids!

Summer Camp Scholarships

CAC makes the dream of attending summer camp come true for many children. Our camp placement program matches the interests of youngsters to day or overnight camps for a life-enriching summer experience.

Summer Lunch Box

The Lunch Box food drive will help families in need off-set summer grocery costs by providing children with lunches for a week.

School Supply Drive

This annual event helps local children be prepared for the start of school with a backpack full of required school supplies.

A Note of Thanks to CAC...

"Thank you for the assistance extended to my family. All of the staff members and volunteers were so kind and compassionate. You helped me to not feel ashamed for needing help."

Tax Return Volunteers Make a Difference

CAC prepared tax returns for free for more than 200 families and individuals this year through a volunteer program designed to help lower income filers save costs and maximize returns.

From January through April, 15 trained and certified tax preparers volunteered at CAC as part of the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program (VITA), operated by the Atlanta Prosperity Campaign and the IRS.

Carlos Diaz, the VITA site coordinator for CAC, said the VITA volunteers worked with each tax filer one on one.

"We have quality, knowledgeable volunteers who are committed to the program and they put in a lot of hours to help the clients," said Diaz.

One family earning less than $20,000 received a sizable refund. A young couple with a baby struggling to make ends meet was advised on the best filing status and informed of other CAC services available to them.

Volunteer tax return preparer Scott Sarver, right, helps a client.

VITA volunteers at CAC served a variety of segments of the population, such as families who have sought assistance from CAC in the past, college students who work part time, and tax payers who have had difficulties filing in the past few years.

CAC was one of approximately 40 VITA tax preparation sites throughout Metro Atlanta. The program is available to households earning less than $48,000 and is expected to be offered again in 2012.

- We had 855 children adopted for holiday gifts
- We gave emergency assistance to 80 families a month
- We gave clothing to 280 people a month
- We had 258 people participate in adult education classes

Jump Starting Careers

Adult Education classes at CAC include English for Successful Living, Computer Skills, Money Matters, Citizenship Preparation and the "JumpStart your Career" workshop for women.

Cresa Partners with CAC

CresaPartners Atlanta had their 4th annual volunteer day at CAC in March. They donated and delivered $1,000 worth of food, shelved goods in the food in the pantry and prepared clothing donations for sale in the thrift store.

Second Helpings Helps CAC get Food to the Hungry

Second Helpings volunteer Robin of Dunwoody and her daughter Rachel make a delivery from the Fresh Market to CAC.

What started as a volunteer project by Temple Sinai to deliver donated food to Community Action Center now reaches beyond CAC and beyond all expectations.

Second Helpings volunteers rescue excess fresh and prepared food that would otherwise be thrown away and deliver it to agencies such as CAC that distribute it to people in need.

CAC was the only recipient of Second Helpings when the program began in 2004. Now Second Helpings delivers to more than a dozen agencies and shelters from Atlanta to North Fulton.

Volunteer drivers pick up and deliver food seven days a week from about 40 donors, including private schools, grocery stores, farmers markets, caterers, restaurants, bakeries and more. The volunteer pool has grown to more than 100 from the Temple, CAC and elsewhere.

Since the program was founded by Temple Sinai member Gunther Hecht, Second Helpings has rescued 1,500,000 pounds of food. In 2010 they picked up 357,000 pounds of food and delivered almost half of it to CAC.

Myron Smith, the outgoing Food Donor Coordinator for Second Helpings at Temple Sinai and a member of the CAC Board of Directors, has been involved with the program since 2005.

"The program has exceeded my expectations, especially considering it's all volunteer, it's really grown quite well," said Smith.

CAC executive director Tamara Carrera said the program has become an integral part of CAC's food pantry program for local families and individuals seeking assistance.

"Second Helpings has had a huge impact on CAC and the agency's ability to give food to those in need. The program allows us to give clients fresh food once a week as opposed to just giving dry and canned goods once a month," said Carrera.

Making a Difference

June Hayden

Client Interview Volunteer

I volunteer at CAC because I feel like I'm making a difference and I'm helping others in a compassionate way. I like the interaction with the clients and the staff. It's such a pleasure to volunteer here.

Life Changing Assistance

Mary, a domestic violence victim, was forced to ask for assistance to start life on her own. CAC helped her pay for temporary housing, provided food and clothing and referrals. We also put together a service plan to help Mary get her life on track. Mary agreed to the plan and sent her children to counseling, found a way to earn a living by bartering, and applied for legal immigrant status. When her immigration status clears she plans to look for a regular job. For Mary and her kids, coming to CAC was a life changing decision.
